

The Weekly {Mar. 2– Mar. 6}

“POWER” Page

Things to Remember:

This week your kindergartner is “training” to run our classroom “READbox” (think Redbox for movies but...BOOKS!). Ask your child to tell you all about it ☺
I am looking forward to meeting with all of you at your child’s conference next week on Tues. or Wed.☺ . You received your appointment day/time in last week’s folder!

In Reading we are...

- Celebrating March is Reading month ☺
- Focusing on reading comprehension (what do we think about certain characters and what evidence do we have from the book to make us think that)
- Focusing on making “connections” in texts
- Meeting with BOOK CLUBS
- Adding to our sight words

In Writing we are...

- Practicing reading our own stories to an audience
- Revising/Editing
- Selecting our “best pieces”
- Celebrating our favorite piece of writing☺

March is Reading Month!

Today in folders, you are receiving a couple of items...

#1: An “at home”

March is reading month

calendar that lists fun ideas that simply excite students about reading!

This is simply for your enjoyment/participation at home - Have fun with it! ☺

#2: A Conference

Questionnaire” for you to fill out and return in your folder tomorrow. I will use your feedback on these to help guide the direction of our time together at conferences☺

HOMEwork

- Name some 3D shapes that you have learned about
- “Re-tell” someone one of your favorite stories! Can you remember to use the characters names?
- Try some of the items on your March is Reading Month “at home” calendar
- Practice writing numbers 0-20

Write down 3 addition equations and solve them!

Please note that the bold-face activity marked with an asterisk (*) should be returned to school by Monday. All other practice can just be completed and enjoyed at home ☺.

In Math we are...

- Using manipulatives to solve addition (1-5 and beyond)
- Working on addition and subtraction fact “fluency”
- Solving number “story problems”
